
FGCU Board of Trustees

The FGCU Board of Trustees (BOT) is comprised of 13 trustees — six appointed by Florida's Governor and five appointed by the State University System Board of Governors, along with the current presidents of the university's Faculty Senate and Student Government.

The FGCU BOT serves as the governing body of Florida Gulf Coast University. The Board holds the president responsible for the university's operation and management, performance, fiscal accountability, and compliance with federal and state laws and regulations, including those of the Board of Governors.

Presidential Search Update

Aysegul Timur, Ph.D., was selected to become FGCU's fifth president on May 4, 2023, following a unanimous endorsement from the FGCU Board of Trustees. Her presidency was confirmed by the Florida Board of Governors on June 22, 2023. She became president on July 1, 2023, following the retirement of President Mike Martin.
